

Dear FCC, As a resident of New Jersey, I am so grateful for the legislation that was passed to protect Consumers from unsolicited phone calls. Please do not overturn the state legislation that has finally stopped intrusive phone calls from disrupting our private right to have a telephone and use it with personal liberty and freedom without it being abused by telemarketers of every type. Thank you for considering this.

Tom Machowski